Mr. Raymond Moley

[Redacted]

Dear Ray:

Thank you for your letter of 6 February 1961 concerning [Redacted]

Our Personnel Director has reviewed the information which you were kind enough to supply about Mr. [Redacted] and advises me that there is very little prospect that we would have a place for him. For the most part, the emphasis in our recruitment activity is placed on the selection of a few junior officer trainees who are interested in making their careers in the intelligence field. As opportunities of a more responsible nature develop, they are filled by the promotion or reassignment of our careerists, and it is only in unusual situations that we recruit from outside of the organization to fill a position in the middle or upper grades.

I appreciate your bringing Mr. [Redacted] to my attention. We will keep a record of his name and get in touch with him if a suitable opening should develop.

Faithfully,

SIGNED
